Let's get bloomin'

Bridal bouquet: This is the big mama of all bouquets - the one that'll steal the show and complement your stunning wedding dress. Make sure it's bold, beautiful, and totally you.

The girls bouquets: These bouquets are for your wingwomen. They should be smaller but just as stunning, and complement your bridesmaid's dresses like a dream.

Boutonnières: These are like the floral swag that everyone wants to wear - they're little flower arrangements that go on the lapel of a groom and his boys, and even the dads. A single flower or a small bunch can go a long way!

Corsages: These are like boutonnières, but for the ladies. They can be pinned to the dress or worn on the wrist, and are usually reserved for the moms and grandmas. How cute is that?

Flower girl basket: It's like the sweetest accessory for your little flower girl! Fill it up with petals or fresh flowers, and let her sprinkle them down the aisle like a true fairy tale princess.

Eco- confetti - Unlike traditional confetti, breaks down naturally and doesn't harm the environment. Made from rose petals or dried flowers.

Let's talk about the fun and fabulous decor elements you can incorporate into your wedding cocktail hour! Get ready to create a space that's full of personality and perfect for mingling and celebrating with your guests.

First up, you'll need plenty of cocktail tables where your guests can gather around while they sip on delicious drinks and munch on tasty appetizers. Choose tables that match your wedding style, whether that's sleek and modern or rustic and vintage.

Your bar area is also a great opportunity to add some fun and festive decor elements. Whether you choose to customize a sign, add a floral garland, or set up a fun photo booth backdrop, your bar will be the place to be.

The bar area at your wedding cocktail hour is often the center of attention!

As soon as you are married you'll want to get a glass of something special into the hands of your guests, so consider style and practicality when choosing a bar!

Lighting is another important element to consider. Whether you opt for dreamy string lights, vintage festoon bulbs, whimsical lanterns, or romantic candles, lighting can help set the mood for your cocktail hour and create a warm and inviting atmosphere.

Don't forget about creating comfy lounge areas where your guests can relax and catch up with loved ones. Think plush couches, cozy armchairs, and plenty of pillows to create a space that's perfect for unwinding.

So let's get started on creating the perfect space for you to celebrate and enjoy!

The wedding reception is where the magic happens! It's the time to let loose, dance, and celebrate with your loved ones. Here are some of the key elements that need styling in your wedding reception:

Tables and Chairs: Your guests will be spending a lot of time at their tables, so make sure they're styled to perfection. Choose table linens, chairs, and table settings that match your wedding style and add a touch of elegance to your reception.

Lighting: Lighting can make or break the mood of your reception. Whether you opt for romantic candlelight, dreamy string lights, or dramatic uplighting, make sure your lighting design matches your wedding vibe.

Dance Floor: Your dance floor is the place to be during your reception! Make sure it's styled to match your wedding theme and add some fun elements like a custom monogram or a fun backdrop.

Bar Area: Like the cocktail hour, your bar area is a great opportunity to add some fun and festive decor elements. Consider creating a customized sign, adding a floral arrangement, or incorporating fun glassware to make your bar area stand out.

Linen: Colors are key when it comes to your table linens. Keep it classic with linens that match your wedding palette or go bold with contrasting hues that'll make your guests say "WOW."

Layering your linens can add depth and dimension to your table settings. Experiment with different textures, colors, and patterns for a look that's all your own.

And let's talk about draping - it's the perfect way to add a touch of glamour and elegance to your tables. Consider a flowing table skirt or draped fabric accents for a luxurious look that'll have your guests feeling like royalty.

EXTRAS:

Plus all the extra pieces needed for the reception! Get ready to add some pizzazz to your wedding with cake stands that are totally Insta-worthy and funky card boxes that reflect your style.

Centerpieces are a key element of your wedding reception decor, and they're the perfect way to add personality and style to your tables.

First, consider the style of your wedding. Are you going for a rustic, bohemian vibe? Or perhaps something more classic and elegant? Once you have your style nailed down, you can start thinking about the centerpiece design.

Flowers are a classic choice for centerpieces, but don't feel limited to traditional blooms. Incorporate unique elements like succulents, herbs, or even fruits and vegetables for a creative twist. And let's not forget about vases - mix and match different sizes and shapes for an eclectic, whimsical look.

Candles are another great option for centerpieces. Not only do they add a warm glow to your tables, but they're also an affordable choice. Play with different candle heights and sizes for a dimensional look, and consider adding in some greenery or flowers for added texture.

telltale signs of a perfect day

We love signage! Wedding signage is the perfect way to infuse your personality and style into your big day while also serving practical functions. With endless options for customising your signs, we can create a unique and playful atmosphere that reflects your love story.

From providing information to directing guests, signs can help keep your wedding organised and flowing seamlessly. Creative signage can add an extra layer of charm and visual interest to your decor.

Welcome sign: Greet your guests with a beautiful welcome sign at the entrance of your reception. This sets the tone for your wedding and lets your guests know they're in the right place.

Seating chart: Alongside place cards, create a seating chart. This adds a touch of elegance to your reception and helps guests find their seats quickly.

Bar menu: If you're serving signature cocktails or have a large selection of drinks, create a bar menu sign to display your offerings. This makes it easy for guests to choose their drinks and adds a fun element to your reception.
